Barton-Regis Hundred, which is subjoined to the actual Returns of the County of the City of Bristol, in order to afford a just view of the Population of that City. The Parishes here entered as in the suburbs of Bristol contain 44,812 Inhabitants. The Parish of Bedminster (Somersetshire) on the South side of the River Avon, containing 13,130 Inhabitants, is also a suburb of Bristol; with these additions, the Population of the City of Bristol amounts to 117,016 Inhabitants. This is the more necessary to be here stated, because the Trade and Handicraft Returns of Bedminster are included with the Bristol Trade and Handicraft, at the end of the County of Gloucester. The Parishes of St. James and St. Paul, including part of both, in the suburbs as well as in the City of Bristol, contain 24,129 Inhabitants; and the Parish of St. Philip and St. Jacob, in like manner, contain 19,663 Inhabitants; but these cannot be distinctly ascribed, the Return of the Out part of the Parishes (so called) not being distinguished. The Patients in the General Infirmary of the City, (in which are 87 Males 20 years old,) are included in the Return of St. James' Parish.
